- offer suggestions about what texts/sources of authority can mean and give examples of what these sources mean to believers
  - make simple links between stories, teachings and concepts studied and how people live, individually and in communities
  - describe how people show their beliefs in how they worship and in the way they live
  - identify some differences in how people put their beliefs into action
  - make links between some of the beliefs and practices studied and life in the world today, expressing some ideas of their own clearly
  - raise important questions and suggest answers about how far the beliefs and practices studied might make a difference to how pupils think and live
  - give good reasons for the views they have and the connections they make
- These general outcomes are related to specific content within the unit outlines on pp.61-72.
